The lava collection features products designed by Alisa Shapard with American Mills, Inc. American Mills is a leading designer and manufacturer with over 75 years of experience in quality home textile, excellent value, and superb customer service.

In nature, lava is an Italian word meaning "a sudden stream". lava pillows form as basalt erupts under water and hot rock flows into distinctive creations as they are quickly frozen by cool seawater. In design, lava pillows are formed when creativity erupts in vibrant color, modern patterns, and unique personality.

Since launching the first line of vintage modern pillows in 2010, lava has expanded to home décor, including bedding, poufs, pet beds, and outdoor rugs. lava completes every space with a vintage touch and trend forward style. Inspired by nature, architecture, fashion, and the arts, the brand offers unique pieces that people of every age have come to love.
